CENTURY COMEDIES

Present

TWO OF A KIND

with Harry Sweet

MAR 25 1922

Harry's wealthy father calls in a rough gentleman to chastise his son into marrying the father's choice. So the rough gentleman sees that Harry is made ready for his bath.

While in his bath the plumber and his terribly dumb assistant (this part is also played by Harry Sweet) enter the bathroom, and several minutes later a general mixup takes place. The plumber's helper is taken for the millionaire's son - and vice versa.

After a great many exceptionally humorous mistakes in their identities, the plumber's helper is forced to marry the ~~girl~~ girl, and everything turns out very nicely for the girl is very happy that she has married a man who can fix her kitchen sink.
